

Office for Dispute Resolution

The Office for Dispute Resolution (ODR) and the Special Education ConsultLine are committed to reaching more parents and advocates of children with disabilities in the Spanish-speaking communities of Pennsylvania. We would like to work with organizations serving these communities—organizations just like yours—by providing informational materials to distribute to area parents and advocates.

If your organization serves Spanish-speaking parents and/or advocates of children with disabilities, you are invited to contact Shannon Kirby or Suzanne McDougall at 1-800-360-7282, extensions 3991 and 3315 respectively, for information on how we can better serve your community. You may also refer parents and advocates seeking information and assistance directly to the ConsultLine at 1-800-879-2301.

If you know of other organizations in your area that may benefit from the information or materials we offer, please fill out and return the form at the bottom of this letter. If you are interested in receiving materials, please call or fill out and return the separate form we've included with this letter. Both forms may be returned to the ODR.

We thank you for helping us to better serve your community.

Best regards,

Shannon Kirby / Suzanne McDougall
